ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ABOUT THE ADZ-AISIN 2018 PROGRAM IN NYC

SCHEDULE ON OCTOBER 10, 2018

We will start in the morning at 9:00AM. The meeting place will be at Central Park's Naumburg Bandshell (Terrace Dr. Near, W 72nd St, New York, NY 10019). Please arrive promptly at 9:00AM.

We will provide a short orientation. You will get to meet your group of students for the Buddy Activity (sightseeing tour). The Buddy Activity will be in small groups of 6-10 people. Each group will have a different itinerary. If time permits, we'll do a quick icebreaker activity before you head out for the sightseeing tour.

After the orientation, you can lead your assigned group to your assigned itinerary. Your lunch and admission fees will be paid by the Aisin guests. Please make sure to time your activities carefully so you get to visit most if not all the activities listed.

At the end of the Buddy Activity, all groups will gather at one central location at Galvanize New York office, 303 Spring Street, New York, NY 10013. Please arrive promptly at 2:30PM.

Groups will be given about 15 minutes to prepare for a 5-minute informal presentation about their Buddy Activity experience.

Afterwards, the Aisin guests will do a cultural presentation about Japan. We will end the day with closing remarks.

ATTIRE

Please remember that you will be leading a group of guests so make sure to wear a clean, non-sloppy, no-holes clothing. No revealing, provocative and skimpy clothing. Wear comfortable shoes as the program requires a lot of walking/running.

COMMUNICATION TOOL

Make sure that you have regular Wi-Fi access because we are planning to communicate using WhatsApp. There are a lot of secured, high-speed Internet access points in NYC (see <https://www.link.nyc> for more info). Make sure to install the app on your phone.

DETAILED ITINERARY

There are four itineraries. You will be assigned to one. We will inform you ahead of time, so you can prepare for it. We will also provide you an electronic and printed copy of a guide to help you navigate through the activities for that day.
